

ECVP-ESVP webinars in veterinary pathology

Dear colleagues, dear residents,

We are pleased to announce that our first webinar will take place on Thursday, 25 May 2023 at 17:00-18:00 CEST.

Joshua Webster, Editor-in-Chief of Veterinary Pathology, will present

“Veterinary Pathology and the Scientific Publication Process”

Abstract: Veterinary Pathology is the official journal of the American, European, and Japanese Colleges of Veterinary Pathologists. This webinar will highlight the role and significance of peer-reviewed publications in the field of veterinary pathology. Additionally, the scope and purpose of Veterinary Pathology, and the publication and peer review processes will be discussed, providing insights into mechanics of the journal.

Please register in advance for this meeting under this link:
